Sub: First Information Report regarding accident of vehicle under motor vehicle act

Sir,

Myself Debarghya Changdar, Assistant Manager (TS), Indian Oil Corporation Limited was driving my vehicle having no. WB 34 AX 3435 towards office on 19th April 2017 with one of my colleagues sitting in the co driver's seat. Around 08:45 am on the same day as the vehicle reached city centre, Haldia a dumper having no. WB 29 B 1405 coming from behind crushed my vehicle in the right side. The accident took place when I tried to change my lane showing right side indicator at least 1 to 2 minutes before which was simply ignored by the driver of the dumper. The dumper was being driven without any helper sitting on the left side. Front and rear doors of the vehicle in the right hand side were severely damaged and the right side looking mirror scattered into pieces getting separated from the vehicle due to the impact. Fortunately nobody was physically injured. The matter was immediately reported to the traffic police deployed at the spot and following their advice both the vehicles were parked at suitable place at the city centre turning point.
